

Become a Volunteer

Calling all volunteers! EAC is always looking for people who are passionate about making a difference in the community. Whether you have a few hours a week or a few days a month, we can use your help to keep our vibrant creative hub running.

Already an EAC volunteer? Click here to sign-up for all of the volunteer opportunities currently available at EAC.

EAC can utilize just about any skill set in some way! The following list includes areas the Art Center can always use the help, but please feel free to make suggestions:

- Front desk and telephone greeters
- Studio assistants for youth classes
- Assist with set-up, clean-up, and facilitating receptions and events
- Librarians
- Gardeners
- Represent EAC at area events
- Writing articles for newsletter and collecting print materials about the Art Center
- Jurors and judges for open call exhibitions
- Open studio monitors (authorizations are required for ceramics and figure drawing; see front desk staff for more details about required certifications and trainings)

Requirements for volunteering at EAC:

- Application/Information Sheet: Click here to download the application PDF
- Membership: Volunteers must be members of EAC during the time of volunteer service
- Background check: Ringling College of Art and Design requires a background check for all eligible volunteers

If you are still unsure about becoming an EAC volunteer and want to hear more, please join us at one of our Volunteer Socials this season! Click here to RSVP for the next Volunteer Social!
